

STATIONERY

A STEADY STREAM
of stationery and office supplies flows from the store to our customers, and another stream replenishes the stock. This is kept up to a condition where betterment is impossible.

from the best manufacturers in each line fills our shelves, and little money will transfer the ownership. The proof of the value is in the quality.

Money saved is money earned. For this reason every man intending trimming himself up for the Fourth of July should read A. A. Smith & Brother's advertisement on page eight of this paper and take advantage of the many bargains offered by them, as they are having a general clearance sale on nearly all their exceptionally heavy stock of up-to-date merchandise. Ladies' and gentlemen's shoes in tan, patent leather, velour calf and vici kid, in both shoes and oxfords, going at $1.98, which would be good values at $3.00. Underwear at 39c, regular 50c goods, and many other bargains too numerous to mention, which will save you money by making this store your headquarters for your Fourth of July shopping.

No Secret About It.

It is no secret that for cuts, burns, ulcers, fever sores, sore eyes, boils, etc., nothing is so effective as Bucklen's Arnica Salve. "It didn't take long to cure a bad sore I had, and it is all O. K. for sore eyes," writes D. L. Gregory of Hope, Tex. Only 25c at the Red Cross Pharmacy and the Parlor Drug Store.

Dr. Wood's Norway Pine Syrup seems especially adapted to the needs of the children. Pleasant to take; soothing in its influence. It is the remedy of all remedies for every form of throat and lung disease.

Ten thousand demons gnawing away at one's vitals couldn't be much worse than the tortures of itching piles. Yet there's a cure. Doan's Ointment never fails.

FOUR DAYS' AUCTION SALE.

Land of Hooker Estate to Be Disposed of at Public Auction.

That portion of the Hooker estate owned by Mrs. Minnie M. Wheeler and located on the flat south of Prospect street is to be sold at public auction beginning Saturday and continuing through Monday, Tuesday (the 4th), and Wednesday.
The Colonial Land Co., which will sell the property, has been busy at work for some time improving and developing the property, grading the streets and cleaning up the lots and putting them in condition so there will be no expense for grading when the purchaser is ready to build. Nature has done much for the tract in this respect. No more convenient location in the entire town. No smoke, no dust, and the purest of air is here—thus making it the choicest, healthiest and most beautiful spot for a home site.

Hooker Meadow, the name given the tract, is situated on a plateau just back of many of the leading Granite sheds, and has two approaches—viz—by way of Granite and Prospect streets, and is within five or six minutes walk of post office, schools, churches, and all the business center. There is not a more convenient location in the entire city. Wide streets have been built and the property thoroughly improved.

The auction will begin Saturday, July 1, at 2.30 p. m.

Presents to the value of $1,000 will be given away free. This is done simply to advertise the tract and to have you see how desirable it is for a residence.

Easy terms to be given. You can make a moderate payment down and then pay $5.00 per month on lot, or you can pay cash and receive 5 per cent. discount.

WILL EXHIBIT MARBLE.

New Feature of Fair of Rutland County Society.

A new and most interesting feature will be seen in floral hall at the coming fair of the Rutland County Agricultural society. As the marble industry is one of the chief sources of employment in that county, R. L. Richmond, superintendent of the floral hall, has decided to invite the various marble quarrying and milling companies in the county to make a big exhibit of all the different grades of marble and also of workmanship.

The success of the venture is already assured as several of the companies have accepted the invitation and have agreed to fill all of the space which Mr. Richmond is willing to allot them. All owners of quarries in this county are invited to furnish exhibits.
It is thought that this will be the finest exhibit of marble ever got together in Vermont. Samples of the various foreign marbles handled by the different companies will also be included in the exhibit.

NEW DIRECTORS CHOSEN.

First Step Toward Reorganization of Equitable Life.

New York, June 29.—Grover Cleveland, Morgan J. O'Brien and George Westinghouse, trustees of the majority stock of the Equitable Life Assurance society, took the first step in the reorganization of the society yesterday by accepting the resignations of all the directors who had tendered them, and in forwarding to the board of directors the names of nine prominent citizens, representing the interests of the stockholders with the recommendation that they be at once elected.

The recommendation of the trustees was immediately complied and the following elected: E. B. Thomas, F. G.
Bourne, J. E. Schmidlapp, Frederick Roebeling, Wm. Whitman, E. W. Bloomingdale, E. W. Robertson, Jos. Bryan and J. J. Albright.

The board also accepted the resignations of all but one of the directors who had resigned, the one exception being James B. Forsan, who withdrew his resignation which is held in abeyance.
In addition to those already known, James H. Hill and Alfred G. Vanderbilt are announced.

STATE HUMANE SOCIETY.

Annual Meeting in Rutland—Officers Elected.

Rutland, June 29.—The annual meeting of the Vermont State Humane society was held in this city yesterday afternoon. Officers were elected as follows: President, D. K. Simonds of Manchester; vice-president, G. L. Fletcher of Chester and H. W. Clement, Dr.
Charles A. Gale and Newman Weeks of this city; secretary and treasurer, Miss S. R. Rogers of Bennington.

Mrs. Jennie B. Powers of Keene, N. H., formerly of Brattleboro, told of the work she had been doing. Outside of Brattleboro alone she has attended to 60 cases of cruelty to children besides numerous cases of cruelty to animals.
Miss S. R. Rogers of Bennington said that during the last year 47 cases of cruelty to animals and 29 cases of cruelty to children had been attended to and three horses had been killed.

WHO PAYS THE FEES?

Witnesses Before Rutland License Commissioners Are Asking.

Rutland, June 29.—A large number of persons in this city are looking for fees due them for testifying before last year's board of license commissioners, Percival W. Clement, Thomas H.
Browne and Charles W. Pennington, at various hearings when licensees were arraigned for alleged violations of their licenses. So far not one of the witnesses subpoenaed has been paid, and there is promise of some interesting developments before the matter is cleared up.
Believing that the liquor law did not provide any way to pay the witnesses the commissioners sent them to City Judge Willis M. Ross for information as to how they should get their money.
Judge Ross is not a little indignant at this, as, according to his statement, he has nothing to do with the matter. The commissioners, he says, should have turned in a bill to the city for these witness fees when they made out their own bill of expenses. All the commissioners are now out of office and the finance committee of the board of aldermen have no way of telling who the witnesses were, so that they do not care to allow bills presented to the city personally by the witnesses.
Judge Ross also has a personal bill against the old license commission, which he hopes to collect. One night the commissioners planned a lot of raids and after night fall a carriage was sent to the house of the judge to bring him downtown to make out the warrants. The official is still looking for his pay.

FERTILIZER FREE

FOR THE ASKING.

Farmers, gardeners, florists, seedsmen, greenhouse proprietors, nurserymen—indeed anyone who will send his name on a postal card to C. S. Page, Hyde Park, Vt., and simply say "I saw your advertisement in The Barre Daily Times, send me a sample of your Plant Food" —will receive a sample promptly free, postpaid. From what we know of the reputation of Mr. Page we are inclined to believe that his Plant Food an article of genuine merit, and when you note the ingredients—and he will send them to you with the mail sample —you will see that the ordinary impositions that are too often practiced upon the farmers under the head of "Fertilizers" do not exist in Page's Plant Food. Address C. S. Page, Hyde Park, Vt.

Wholesale Slaughter of Bugs.
